

Fresno County Economic Opportunities Commission

Media Advisory

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

August 17, 2010

Media Contact:

Augie Blancas 559.263.1026

COMMUNITY IS INVITED TO MEET NEW EOC EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

- Brian Angus brings with him 38 years of coalition building and Community Action experience -

(Fresno, CA) Fresno County Economic Opportunities Commission (EOC) is pleased to invite the media and local community to welcome our new Executive Director Brian Angus to EOC. The welcome reception will be held in conjunction with the Firebaugh Food Distribution on Thursday, August 19, 2010, from 11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. at the El Rodeo Community Center at 1655 13th Street in Firebaugh. Please join us and local community leaders in welcoming Brian Angus to the Central Valley.

Mr. Angus has dedicated his 38 year professional career to Community Action. Before coming to EOC, Mr. Angus served as Chief Executive Officer of Anne Arundel Economic Opportunity Committee. Mr. Angus brings to EOC a successful track record of building and leading nationally recognized coalitions as well as the passion and drive to empowering the low-income and disenfranchised. The hallmark of his career was organizing three nationally recognized community coalitions including the Fitchburg Action to Conserve Energy (FACE) and the Fitchburg Safe and Healthy Neighborhood Coalition in Fitchburg, Massachusetts, and the Poverty Task Force in Anne Arundel County, Maryland.

About Fresno County Economic Opportunities Commission (EOC)

For over 44 years, Fresno County EOC – a private, nonprofit agency – has helped low-income Fresno County residents become self-sufficient. EOC offers over 30 comprehensive community-based programs that develop an individual's capabilities and places them on the path toward financial independence.

###