

Central Valley 8th Annual Conference on Human Trafficking

Monday, April 3, 2017

Exhibitor Table Entry Form

Fresno EOC's Central Valley Against Human Trafficking project is pleased to announce the 8th Annual "Be Free" Conference on Human Trafficking to be held on Monday, April 3, 2017. This year's theme is Building Bridges and will explore a multi-disciplinary approach to regional partnerships, identification and recovery for victims of human trafficking in the Central Valley.

An Exhibitor area will be hosted during the Conference to highlight agencies providing supportive services to victims and survivors of all forms of human trafficking in our Central Valley Region and/or any socially conscious vendors who abide by fair trade/whole trade practices.

Early submission is encouraged as there is limited space available. Interested parties should complete the information below and submit online no later than March 16, 2017. You will receive a notice of acceptance if your submission is approved along with details regarding the event including: set-up time, table size, table throws, pop-ups, vendor fee for those selling items, approved materials and schedule of events.

Thank you in advance for your interest and submission.
